BUSH-SECURITY: President Bush confirmed his five children are getting extra protection. But, asked about reports drug lords have threatened to kidnap one of them, he said: "I have confidence in our intelligence community."

New York Newsday said unnamed intelligence sources say Bush daughter Dorothy LeBlond, 30, a Maine businesswoman, appears most vulnerable. Bush said he had no information on the report, adding: "I have a feeling that that matter is of enough interest to me that it would have been brought to my attention." In Florida, police said they're probing reported Colombian drug lord threats against Gov. Bob Martinez.
